Fall Traditions

As a rite of fall, I remember putting on a light coat and hopping in the family car for a trip to Grandma & Grandpa's place. There were plenty of acres to explore, and I remember Grandpa pointing at a brown and black fuzzy caterpillar and announcing proudly that "It's gonna be a loooooong winter!" I nodded in agreement as only the worldly & wise would, cloaking the fact that as a city-raised 6 year-old I had absolutely no idea what he was talking about. Still, I was mesmerized at this creature with a fur coat that clearly seemed ready for a cold snap. On another visit, he'd point to a squirrel chattering at us high in an oak proclaiming, "Look at the bushy tail. Yep, it's definitely going to be a cold one."

Of course, Walworth County is a delightful place to be in fall, and I'm sure you have memories and traditions too. Maybe it's heading to the County Fair to check out the animals and indulge in all-things-fried. Or, a beautiful hike around the lake as the leaves begin to change colors. Still, maybe it's bundling up and watching a high school game (GO Big Foot)!
