

WISCONSIN PARK AND RECREATION ASSOCIATION
SO EVERYONE CAN PLAY

Contact:
WPRO Office
414-423-1210
office@wpraweb.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Feb. 12, 2021

MILWAUKEE – The Wisconsin Park and Recreation Association (WPRO) was proud to award outstanding programs that enhanced Wisconsin parks over the past year, 2020, at the WPRO Virtual Awards Ceremony on Feb. 11.

Amongst others, the WPRO awards are categorized by Silver Star, Park Section Design and Aquatic Section Outstanding Facility Design/Renovation awards for Recreation departments. Awards are submitted by Association members and chosen by the WPRO elected officials based on project achievement and community impact. This year's winners can be found below:

Silver Star Award Recipients

Youth Programming: Operation Recreation – West Allis-West Milwaukee Recreation and Community Services Dept.

Adult/Older Programming: Progressive Tennis – City of Waukesha Parks, Recreation & Forestry Dept.

→ Special/Community Events: Doggie Egg Hunt – Big Foot Recreation District ←
Creative Service Delivery/Marketing: Cops and Bobbers – Cambridge Community Activities Program

Creative COVID Programming Award: Twilight at Traxler – City of Janesville

Park Section Design Award Recipients

Al Remington Seating Deck – City of Antigo

Frame Park Playground, National Demonstration Site – City of Waukesha

Hidden Lake Greenway Trail – City of Brookfield

River Prairie Park – City of Altoona

Aquatic Section Outstanding Facility Design/Renovation Award Recipient

Woodman Aquatic Center – City of Richland Center

WPRO is a statewide, non-profit service organization dedicated to extending the social, health, culture and economic benefits of parks and recreation through its network of recreation/park professionals and civic leaders. There are approximately 1,200 WPRO members who include state and local experts on recreation, urban planning, aquatics, at-risk-youth, therapeutic recreation services and parkland development and services.